

ETHICAL INVESTMENT

INVEST WITH YOUR HEAD AND YOUR HEART

Ethical investing is a growing trend, as more and more Australians want to ensure they are investing in a brighter future for our planet and its people. But it's also important to invest with your head, as well as your heart. That's where we come in.

Our experienced advisers listen to your beliefs and values to develop a truly personalised investment portfolio that supports your individual life goals and helps you grow your finances, while also ensuring you have a positive impact on the world around you.

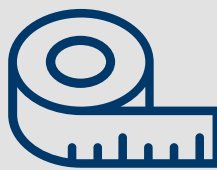

AVOIDING COMMON PITFALLS

Ethical investing can be a great way to have a positive impact on others and your own financial position, it just takes a little more planning to avoid some common pitfalls.

LETTING VALUES CLOUD JUDGEMENT

While you want to support change for good, you need to make sure you are combining this with sound financial judgement. You won't be able to continue to support the causes that are important to you if you don't support your own financial wellbeing too.

TAKING A 'ONE SIZE FITS ALL' APPROACH

Ethics are incredibly individual, and what one investor considers an ethical investment simply may not work for another. It's important that you partner with an adviser who takes the time to understand you and build a personalised approach.

NOT LOOKING DEEP ENOUGH

When it comes to ensuring your investments align with your ethical values, it's critical that you look deeper than the surface to truly understand how your investments are directly or indirectly contributing to positive change.
