HOW WILL YOU MAXIMISE YOUR INHERITANCE?

Most Australians receive an inheritance only once or twice in a lifetime. Make your inheritance count with the backing of professional advice.

LUMP SUM GAINS ARE RARELY ACQUIRED, EASILY SPENT.

Wealth often fails to survive across multiple generations.

Sadly, many who receive an inheritance will not see a sustained improvement in their financial position. Without quality advice, some people even experience a decline in their long-term financial well-being, despite receiving a valuable inheritance.

HOW APT HELPS YOU MAKE INFORMED DECISIONS:

1 WE SIMPLIFY THE INHERITANCE PROCESS

An inheritance doesn't always take the shape of cash or real estate. You may inherit valuable, yet complex, assets such as shares, a business, a farm or a family trust. We can explain how it all works, and what you need to know so that you can make informed decisions about your inheritance.

During what can be an emotional time, it can seem overwhelming to have to navigate strict tax and inheritance laws. That's when the professional support of Apt can be valuable. We can guide you through the rules, explaining the possible outcomes of different scenarios to help you decide a course of action.

3 WE EASE THE BURDEN AT A DIFFICULT TIME

You're not in this alone. We understand an inheritance often leads to unexpected changes in your financial circumstances. At times like this, it is critical to revisit your estate plans. We can put you in touch with one of our specialist consultants or partners to give you the advantage of holistic advice and make sure the wealth you have inherited can benefit the people who matter most to you.
